

A Friend Just Like Arlo

Flip Chute Cards

True or False:

Every night Arlo dreamed of playing hide-and-seek, climbing ladders and feeding rabbits.

Arlo's friends were:

- a) Mary and Jeff.
- b) Mary and Bert.

Even though Bert was slow, he was:

- a) faster than Arlo.
- b) good at hiding.

True or False:

Arlo and Nico are both dragons.

Why was Nico crying?

- a) His friends weren't like him.
- b) His friends were too much like him.

Arlo's mother was surprised because Nico:

- a) was a dragon.
- b) was human.

True or False:

Although Arlo and Nico were different on the outside; they were similar on the inside.

When Bert and Mary fed the ducks, they flapped their wings and:

- a) scared the ducks.
- b) called the ducks.

The lesson of this story is if you look different:

- a) you can still be friends.
- b) you can't be friends.

True

a) scared the ducks.

a) you can still be friends.

False

a) His friends weren't like him.

b) was human.

False

b) Mary and Bert.

b) good at hiding.